Civilian Living History: 101

Saturday, October 15th, 2022

Rock Creek Station State Historical Park, Fairbury, Nebraska

Have you ever wanted to get involved in living history reenactments?

Join members of the Rock Creek Hayforks living history group at Rock Creek Station SHP for an introductory session for aspiring reenactors! An informative presentation and Q&A will take place at 10:30AM and again at 2:00PM.

- Find out how to get connected with active volunteers and participate in living history events.
- Discuss resources for proper clothing, ephemera, historical accuracy and learning period skills.
- Hear stories on how to build a first person persona, what goes on “behind the scenes” and why this is a great way to spend a weekend!

This is an invitation to individuals, families, groups – people of all ages and abilities! Please contact the park with any questions.
