

Last Supper Pageant

April 2 @ 3:00 & 6:00 / April 5 at 7:00
Chester Auditorium

Written by Ernest K. Emurieian, the play depicts the scene of the Last Supper painting by Leonardo da Vinci done in 1491. Leonardo's painting depicted the moment during the Last Supper just after Jesus announced "One of you will betray me" and continues from that moment with the actors frozen in their poses and coming to life, one at a time, to speak about their individual thoughts and asks, "Is it I, Lord?"

Now in our 11th year!

Join us for an evening of music, song and fellowship culminating in a communion with our performers.

The Chester Community Club is holding a Smoked Pork Chop meal in the Methodist Church basement on Sunday April 2 from 4pm to 6pm.

Free Will Offering